

COMPANY POLICY SUMMARY

1. PURPOSE AND BENEFICIARIES

This document identifies the general principles and rules of conduct to which BBM S.P.A. attaches a positive ethical value. The adopted Ethical Code defines an essential set of core values and principles, already embedded in the company business as fundamental rules of action of day-to-day activity that may be enforced in the relationships both with its employees and with third parties.

The purpose of this Code is to ethically steer the actions of the company and its provisions are binding for the conduct of all the directors of the company, its managers, employees, consultants and whoever establishes, for any reason, a business relationship with the company.

The Code is disclosed internally under procedure 101, published and downloadable from the company website, so that it is available to any company interlocutor.

2. THE VALUE OF REPUTATION AND CORPORATE CREDIBILITY

Reputation and credibility represent fundamental intangible assets. A good reputation and credibility of a company favour investment, relationships with local institutions, customers' loyalty, the development of human resources, the fairness and reliability of suppliers.

When performing any corporate activity, non-ethical conducts compromise the trust between companies and their stakeholders. As a consequence, the conducts and attitudes of individuals or legal entities that work with or for the company, who try to gain undue advantage or interest for themselves or BBM S.P.A., are not ethical and favour the establishment of hostile and unclear conducts towards BBM S.P.A.

Unethical conduct means both behaviours in breach of applicable legislation and behaviours in conflict with internal regulations and procedures as established by the system.

3. CONTRACTUAL VALUE OF THE CODE

Compliance with the Code's provisions shall be considered as forming an integral part of the contractual obligations of the company's employees under and for the effects of articles 2104, 2105 and 2106 of the Italian Civil Code.

A serious and persistent breach of the provisions of this Code harms the bond of trust established with the company and may result in disciplinary measures and claims for damage, without prejudice for compliance by employees with the procedures established by the relevant laws and by collective employment agreements.

4. UPDATES OF THE CODE

The Code may be amended and supplemented, upon initiative and in the wake of the suggestions coming from the Supervisory Board and all the beneficiaries of the Code, and requires the approval by the Board of Directors.

5. GENERAL PRINCIPLES

The Ethical Code represents a set of principles and guidelines whose compliance is fundamental for the accomplishment of company objectives, the standard performance of the business, the reliability of the management and the reputation of BBM S.P.A. The actions, conducts and relationships, both inside and outside the company, are inspired by said principles and guidelines.

5.1 LIABILITY

When accomplishing the company mission, the conducts of all the beneficiaries of this Code shall be inspired by the ethics of responsibility. The company has set an all-important principle, compliance with existing laws and regulations both in Italy and abroad. The beneficiaries of the Code shall comply with applicable legislation; in no case is the pursuit or the accomplishment of the company interest in breach of laws acceptable.

5.2 TRANSPARENCY

The principle of transparency is based on the truthfulness, accuracy and completeness and sharing of information, both outside and inside the company. When drafting contracts with Customers and Suppliers the company prepares the clauses in a clear and understandable manner.

5.3 FAIRNESS

The principle of fairness implies compliance with rights, also in terms of privacy and opportunities, of all the parties involved in work-related and professional activities. It also requires the removal of any discrimination and any possible conflict of interest between the employees and the company. The relationship with third parties, the relationships with and among contract workers shall be based on loyalty, acting responsibly, valorization and safeguarding the company assets and the adoption of a good-faith attitude in any activity or decision. BBM S.P.A. undertakes to act equitably and impartially, adopting the same behaviour vis-à-vis all the interlocutors it gets in contact with, despite the different formats of relationship and communication requested by the nature and institutional role of the various interlocutors.

5.4 EFFICIENCY

The principle of efficiency requires that in any working activity the cost-effectiveness of the resources employed in the performance of corporate processes is accomplished and the commitment to offer adequate products and services to the requirements of the Customers and according to the most advanced standards is undertaken. BBM S.P.A. undertakes to constantly guarantee the effectiveness and efficiency of corporate processes, by preparing and complying with programmes for the constant improvement of the quality of services and products supplied through the adoption of technological and organizational solutions aimed at combining the meeting of the requirements of Customers with the efficiency and cost-effectiveness of management.

5.5 COMPETITION

The company intends to develop the value of competition by adopting principles of fairness, fair competition and transparency towards all market operators.

5.6 RELATIONSHIPS WITH THE COMMUNITY AND ENVIRONMENTAL PROTECTION

When performing its business, BBM S.P.A. undertakes to safeguard the surroundings and contribute to the sustainable development of the territory by undertaking to constantly prevent pollution. BBM S.P.A. is sensitive to the topics of sustainable development and environmental protection and considers as a priority a commitment to research and constant improvement of production processes in compliance with applicable legislation, environmental requirements and common interest, by applying the best cost-effective available technologies in order to minimize the direct and indirect environmental impact. In order to implement an effective environmental policy, BBM S.P.A. takes care to raise the awareness of management and contract workers and to promote improvement initiatives, actions and programmes for a wide-spread protection of the environment, to take care of the refreshment of staff training through proper procedures of its own management system to pursue the strategic objective of non-pollution.

5.7 VALORISATION OF HUMAN RESOURCES

Human resources represent a fundamental factor for the development of the company. As a consequence, BBM S.P.A. protects and promotes their professional growth, also in order to increase their wealth of skills.

5.8 GOVERNANCE SYSTEM

The governance system adopted by the company is compliant with applicable legislation and is in line with the most authoritative guidelines and with the best practices on the matter; it is aimed at ensuring the utmost and most balanced collaboration among its components through a fine-tuning of the various management, guidance and supervision roles outlines in the organization chart.

Such a system is oriented to guarantee a responsible and transparent management of the company vis-à-vis the market, in a view of creating value for the shareholders and pursuing corporate objectives.

The members of the company boards shall uniform their activity to the principles of equity and integrity, abstaining from acting in situations of conflict of interest within the activity performed in the company. They are also required to take active and informed part in the company business; they shall use confidentially the information they become familiar with for their job and they may not take advantage of their position to obtain gifts and personal advantages, whether direct or indirect; each communication activity shall comply with the laws and practices of fair conduct and shall be aimed at safeguarding confidential information.

The Management undertakes to have the values expressed by the Ethical Code scrupulously complied with, also promoting sharing and disclosure to third parties.

The members of the company boards are asked to meet applicable legislation. The obligations of fairness and confidentiality also bind such members after the termination of the employment contract.

Given its business and organizational complexity, BBM S.P.A. adopts a system of delegation of powers (see organization chart) that provides for the assignment of appointments to people who have suitable abilities and skills, in express and specific terms.

5.9 INTERNAL CONTROL SYSTEM

In compliance with applicable legislation and in view of the planning and management of efficiency-, equity-, transparency- and quality-oriented activities of the company, BBM S.P.A. has adopted an organizational and management model, under Legislative Decree 231/2001, that is integrated with the management system.

As a support required for the adoption of the Organization and Management Model, an ad-hoc Supervisory Board has been established to constantly check the operation and enforcement of such Model, in addition to supervising compliance with this Code.

The Supervisory Board assists the BoD in the establishment and update of the guidelines of the internal supervisory system, the evaluation of the adequacy and the actual operation thereof in the analysis of company risks and performs the additional tasks laid out in the System.

6. RELATIONSHIP WITH SHAREHOLDERS

BBM S.P.A., aware of the importance of the role played by the shareholder, undertakes to supply accurate, truthful and prompt information and to improve the conditions of participation, within its prerogatives, in the company decisions.

The company's commitment is to protect and increase the value of its business, against the commitment undertaken by the shareholders with their investment, through the valorisation of the management, the pursuit of high production standards and the financial standing. The company also undertakes to safeguard and protect the company resources and assets.

In particular, the company undertakes to ensure the participation of directors in the meeting proceedings as well as the orderly and functional performance of the meetings, in compliance with the fundamental right of each shareholder to ask for clarifications on the various items on the agenda and to express their opinion.
